

overtures to incorporate several concepts proposed by the Republican side of the aisle. For example, he committed to tort reform. He embraced Senator JOHN MCCAIN's initiative on providing low-cost protection for individuals with preexisting medical conditions. He pledged to work with any serious effort to improve and provide more affordable, accessible health care for all Americans. Despite the fact that the President has incorporated Republican ideas and proposals into his plan, the other side still refuses to work with him. Their plan: Just say, "no."

When faced with the largest recession since World War II, the American people didn't want partisan bickering; they wanted solutions. With the Recovery Act and other stabilizing measures, we have enacted those solutions, and we have seen positive results. Our economic recovery efforts are working. But the Republicans just said, "no."

The need for health care reform is clear. Health insurance premiums over the past decade have increased three times greater than incomes, and they will increase 5 percent more this year. Millions of Americans with preexisting medical conditions are finding themselves unable to access health care even if they have health insurance. A recent survey by the Kaiser Family Foundation revealed that without reform, 8 percent of businesses will drop health insurance for their employees altogether. And still, Republicans are saying, "no."

When providing affordable and accessible health care, the American people will not accept "no" for an answer any longer. They want to hear us say, "yes."

AFTER RECESS

The recess having expired, the House was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. TONKO) at 2 p.m.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer: Have we hardened our hearts, O Lord?

You have said: "If today you hear the voice of the Lord, harden not your hearts."

Once the heart is deadened by indifference to Your Word or to the cry of a neighbor in need, where do we find ourselves? Alone and cold.

How are we to find happiness? Only love can melt the hardened heart.

When the adventure of sensual love has run its course or unfaithful love stabs betrayal, the heart may become paralyzed or broken.

In the stillness, Lord, quiet memory brings us back to You. Believing we are born out of love and have searched for its fulfillment all life long, moments of true love once found in truth and beauty fall into place. Your grace then steps through the open cracks and we come to know by heart:

"I am with you"—now and forever. Amen.

WE MUST RETURN TO BALANCED BUDGETS AND PAY DOWN OUR NATIONAL DEBT

(Mrs. KIRKPATRICK of Arizona asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mrs. KIRKPATRICK of Arizona. Mr. Speaker, I first want to welcome two people from my district who are in the House gallery today, Ken and Teresa Lamont from Cottonwood, Arizona.

Welcome to the House.

The time is now to develop a plan for the United States to return to balanced budgets and pay down our national debt.

Yes, these are difficult decisions to make. However, the folks in my district and across the country are tightening their belts and doing more with less. It is time for Congress to work with the Federal Reserve and the Treasury to develop plans to do the same before it is too late.

We must take this work seriously and remain committed. Our country, our security, and our future depend on it.

I ask that my colleagues from both sides of the aisle join me in this effort.

DANCING WITH THE CZARS

(Mr. POE of Texas asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. POE of Texas. Mr. Speaker, we have 44 czars in America and the dance card keeps growing. The new czar for the day is the safe schools czar.

Add that to the Afghanistan-Pakistan czar, the AIDS czar, auto recovery czar, behavioral science czar, bailout czar, border czar, car czar, climate change czar, copyright czar, counterterrorism czar, cybersecurity czar, diversity czar, disinformation czar, two economic czars, an education czar, energy czar, food czar, government performance czar, Great Lakes czar, Gitmo closure czar, health care czar, info tech czar, intelligence czar, Latin American czar, Mideast peace czar, Mideast policy czar, pay czar, regulatory czar, religion or God czar, science czar, stimulus czar, Sudan czar, TARP czar, technology czar, trade czar, urban affairs czar, war czar, water czar, weapons czar. And now we have a safe schools czar.

Who are these people, and what do they do? Is this a shadow government?

Since we continue to dance with the czars, it would be nice to know who brought us to the dance.

And that's just the way it is.

HONORING KEITH MORRISON AS AN ANGEL IN ADOPTION

(Mr. BOOZMAN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BOOZMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Keith Morrison of Fayetteville, Arkansas, as an Angel in Adoption. Keith is very deserving of this honor and recognition because of his work and dedication to finding children from around the world permanent families.

Working as an attorney since 1984, he has represented hundreds of families throughout the United States both in domestic and international adoptions. Morrison also regularly represents private adoption agencies. He continues his work beyond the walls of his office, helping start church adoption ministries and raising funds to support
